At the AGM existing council members stand down; if there are more than nine candidates for election, a secret ballot is held at the meeting, and the results are declared at the meeting.

Both the honorary treasurer and auditor (the latter is not a member of the General Council) are elected at the AGM. Other officers are appointed by the members of the General Council at its first meeting following the AGM, which will be held on Thursday 16th April.

Please send details of any issues you would like discussed at the AGM to Dr David Preston (secretary@barbicanassociation.co.uk).

Written nominations for the elected positions must be submitted (form attached) to Dr David Preston, 91 Breton House EC2Y 8PQ (secretary@barbicanassociation.co.uk) no later than Tuesday 07 April 2026. Candidates must be proposed and seconded, and the candidate must indicate that he or she is willing to stand.

Notification of representatives of affiliated house groups should reach the honorary secretary by Tuesday 07 April 2026.
