The main decision-making body of the Association is the BA General Council, which consists of nine members and the honorary treasurer, elected at the AGM, along with representatives of affiliated house groups. The General Council meets about every two months. At the AGM existing council members stand down, and if there are more than nine candidates for election, a secret ballot is held at the meeting and the results declared at the meeting.

Both the honorary treasurer and auditor (the latter is not a member of the general council) are elected at the AGM. Other officers are appointed by the members of the general council at its first meeting following the AGM.

Please send details of any issues you would like discussed at the AGM to Adam Hogg (chairbarbassociation@gmail.com).

Written nominations for the elected positions must be submitted (form enclosed) to Fred Rodgers, 100 Breton House EC2Y 8PQ (fredrodgers@me.com) no later than Tuesday 12 April 2022. Candidates must be proposed and seconded and the candidate must indicate that he or she is willing to stand.

Notification of representatives of affiliated house groups should reach the honorary secretary by Tuesday 12 April 2022.

The Barbican Association : Keep Informed

The Barbican Association (BA) would like to be able to communicate with all residents by email. It is efficient from the point of view of cost and speed.

We are constrained by GDPR rules which require us to have your permission to send you emails. We have over 2000 members of the Association and have email addresses for approximately 1400, most of whom agreed to receive emails pertaining to the AGM. However, only 540 people have responded to our request to allow us to send general information about The BaA's activities and only 213 of these are registered members of the BA. If you are confused by all of this:

Some frequently asked questions about the BA email list

Why have I not received an email from the BA since last April?

- If you are a member of the BA, you may have received an email in April to invite you to the AGM. The terms you agreed to when you joined the BA allow the Membership Secretary to contact you only about:
- issues relating to your membership account and to invite you to the AGM but nothing else.
- If you want to receive other updates from the BA, you will need to give us your permission by signing up for our email list.

Why did I not receive the last email from the BA

- If you were previously receiving regular emails from the BA, you may have inadvertently unsubscribed using the unsubscribe link at the bottom of the last email you received.
- It's also possible that, if you forwarded one of the BA emails to someone else, that they may have used that unsubscribe link, removing you from our list.
- To make sure you are signed up to receive emails in the future, please fill in the sign-up form.
- To avoid being accidentally unsubscribed in the future, please use the 'forward to a friend' link which will be contained in all future emails from the BA, rather than forwarding the email directly.

I'm a member of the Barbican Association, why am I not receiving emails from the BA?

- The Barbican Association email list is separate from the membership database.
- The terms you agreed to when you joined the BA do not allow us to automatically add you to our email list so you will need to sign up using the online form.
- The email list is also open to anyone whether or not they are a paid-up member of the BA.
- The terms you agreed to when you joined the BA do not allow us to automatically add you to our email list so you will need to sign up using the online form.

Why am I not receiving the extra emails with news about the Barbican Estate?

- It's possible you are thinking of the weekly emails sent out from the Barbican Estate Office (BEO).
- The Barbican BA is a Registered Tenants' Association (RTA), run for residents, by residents, all of whom volunteer in their roles.
- The BEO is run by the City of London Corporation (CoL) and is the base for many of the paid employees who manage the estate for the CoL, e.g. House Officers and estate engineers.
- The BEO has its own email list and circulates emails on a weekly basis with practical information from the CoL about what's happening on and around the estate.
- The BA sends emails at least once a month to make sure residents are kept up to date about issues we are working on on your behalf, e.g. fighting planning proposals that will impact negatively on residents.
